1 COMPLAINT FOR WRIT OF MANDAMUS

2
3 To the Honorable Judges of Said Court:

4 Plaintiff, Farzaneh AMINI, through undersigned counsel, allege as follows:

5 INTRODUCTION

6 1. This is a civil action brought pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1331, and 28
7 U.S.C. §1361, to redress the deprivation of rights, privileges and immunities
8 secured to Plaintiff to compel Defendants to perform a duty Defendants owe to 9 Plaintiff. Jurisdiction is also conferred by 5 U.S.C. §701.

10 2. This action is brought to compel Defendants and those acting under 11 them to take action on the Applications to Adjust Status, Form I-485, in order for 12 Plaintiff, to become a Permanent Resident of the United States.

13 3. Plaintiff is eligible to have her Applications adjudicated.

14 4. Defendants, the Department of Homeland Security and U.S.
15 Citizenship and Immigration Services, are charged by law with the statutory 16 obligation to adjudicate these Applications to Adjust Status, Form I-485. In fact,
17 defendants have taken money for this purpose.

18 5. Venue is proper under 28 USC §1391(e) because the Plaintiff resides
19 in this district and no real property is involved in this action.

20 SUMMARY OF CASE

21 6. This case involves a 46 year-old Iranian woman who has lived in the 22 United States for 30 years who has waited nearly three years for Defendants to 23 approve her application for adjustment of status. She is married to a United 24 States Citizen. Plaintiff is educated and a productive member of society. She 25 freely gives of her time to the Afghan Community by providing psychological 26 services including work in suicide prevention, alcohol and drug recovery, worked
27 closely with battered women, juvenile delinquents. She has also treated children
28

1 and adolescents suffering from manic depression, autism, pervasive development
2 disorder, attention deficit disorder, post-traumatic stress disorder, physical and
3 sexual emotional abuse. Also works in convalescent hospitals and work with 4 afghan refugees. As you can note, her career has been dedicated to helping those 5 in need.

6 7. On account of Defendants' unreasonable delay in processing her
7 application, she has lived under constant stress without knowing the reasons
8 Defendants are delaying the adjudication of her application.
9

10 FACTS

11 8. Plaintiff is the beneficiary of an Adjustment of Status application
12 through her United States citizen husband. She submitted her applications (I-13 485, I-130 & I-765) before the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Service
14 [hereafter USCIS] on or about August 29, 2004. Exhibit A.

15 9. Plaintiff's I-485 & I-130 should have been adjudicated six months
16 after her application was filed. Exhibit B (San Francisco District Office
17 processing dates) & Exhibit C (USCIS – California Service Center I-130
18 processing dates).

19 10. On November 5, 2004, USCIS acknowledged receipt of her
20 application but stated it could not accept said application because additional 21 evidence was required. [Exhibit D] Plaintiff responded timely.

22 11. On December 2, 2004, USCIS acknowledge receipt and acceptance of 23 plaintiff's application. She was informed that an interview would follow. Exhibit
24 E

25 12. Plaintiff was informed to pick up her Work Authorization on 26 December 8, 2004. Again plaintiff followed instructions and appeared as 27 indicated. Exhibit F
28

1 13. On December 2, 2004, USCIS requested further evidence for the 2 processing of plaintiff's application. Exhibit G. She was also required to appear
3 for fingerprints. Exhibit H

4 14. On February 3, 2005, USCIS asked plaintiff to appear for an interview
5 before Officer B18 Bock DC3 in San Francisco, California to adjudicate
6 plaintiff's application for adjustment of status. Exhibit I (copy of USCIS
7 Interview Notice).

8 15. At the end of the interview, the Immigration Officer asked plaintiff to 9 provide a copy of the I-94 she was issued upon entry. The Immigration Officer
10 also informed plaintiff that she would be approved upon receipt of said
11 document. Exhibit J. Thereon plaintiff applied to the USCIS to obtain said
12 document. Upon receipt, plaintiff sent a copy to the immigration officer. Please
13 note that it took two months for USCIS to respond to her application. Exhibit K

14 16. Plaintiff contacted the USCIS on numerous occasions and was 15 informed that her application was still being processed.

16 17. On March 3, 2006, USCIS sent plaintiff to get fingerprinted again and 17 again she followed instructions by getting fingerprinted on March 10, 2006.
18 Exhibit L

19 18. Plaintiff made another inquiry to USCIS and this time it responded by 20 stating her application was delayed on account of a background investigation.
21 Exhibit M.

22 19. Finally, plaintiff hired the undersigned counsel to try to do something
23 about the delay. The undersigned counsel sent a letter to USCIS district office on 24 November 8, 2007 to follow up and to inform it that plaintiff would take this
25 matter up with this court if a response was not forthcoming. Exhibit N
26
27
28

20. It has now been two years and nine months since plaintiff was interviewed by a USCIS Officer. Plaintiff's application of Adjustment of Status, has now been pending for over three years and two months.

1 works, pays her taxes and contributes pro-bono services to those who cannot
2 afford her professional fees.

3 27. As for hardships, plaintiff has prudently chosen to not stray from the 4 borders of the United States until the government renders its decision concerning
5 her application for legal permanent residency. She does need to see her mother
6 who is in Iran. She also needs the uncertainty of her pending application for 7 adjustment lifted. Indeed, this is an emotionally draining situation that plaintiff
8 deals with on a daily basis. Plaintiff has a medical condition that is aggravated
9 by this stress.

10 28. In addition to the emotional challenges related to her pending
11 application, plaintiff cannot begin to seek status as a United States Citizen until 12 she first becomes a legal permanent resident. In order to qualify for certain jobs,
13 United States citizenship is required. The failure of the government to timely act
14 on her application to adjust status has had the effect of delaying her citizenship.
15 Had her application been timely adjudicated, plaintiff would now be able to seek 16 citizenship.

17 29. In sum, Plaintiff has been a law-abiding, tax-paying member of this 18 society and has done nothing but help and serve this country and those of its 19 members in need. She serves as a great benefit to her community. Plaintiff has 20 received letters from members of the community to support her case. Exhibit R

21 CLAIMS

22 30. Defendants have willfully and unreasonably delayed in, and have 23 refused to, adjudicate plaintiff's Applications for Adjustment of Status, thereby
24 depriving her of the benefit of becoming Permanent Resident of the United 25 States, and the peace of mind she and her family are entitled to.

26 31. Plaintiff has also lost great employment opportunities because of her
27 immigration status.
28

1 32. Plaintiff has been deprived of seeing her 76 years old mother who
2 suffers from diabetes, kidney disease, and late-stage arthritis. She has also been 3 deprived of seeing meet her in-laws and this situation has been a great source of 4 grief in their lives.

5 33. Defendants owe plaintiff a duty to adjudicate her application, and 6 have unreasonably failed to perform that duty.

7 34. Plaintiff has exhausted any administrative remedies that may exist.
8

9 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays that the Court:

10 1. Compel defendants and those acting under them to perform their duty
11 to adjudicate plaintiff's Application;

12 2. Grant such other and further relief as this Court deems proper under 13 the circumstances; and

14 3. Grant Attorney's fees and costs of Court to Plaintiff under the Equal
15 Access to Justice Act.

16 Respectfully submitted this November 13, 2007

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services San Francisco CA Processing Dates Posted October 15, 2007

Notice: U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) has improved the reporting procedure for processing times of immigration benefit applications. In the past, USCIS benefit processing reports indicated the specific type of applications or petitions that were being processed and the date the cases were received. However, the date the case was received did not provide a clear indication of when USCIS expected to complete the case, nor did it provide a clear indication of USCIS' commitment to process cases within a certain cycle time. It also did not align with the processing times and cycle times the agency reports in other contexts.

This improved reporting procedure is an effort to give our customers more accurate information that better reflects current processing time and USCIS service level commitments. Effective immediately, when we are completing applications and petitions within our service level goals we will report the USCIS service level commitment. For example, when our service level goal is to process a particular kind of case within six months, and if our processing time is six months or less, we will show "6 months".

When we are not meeting our service level goal, the date posted will reflect the filing date of cases that are being completed. It should be noted that while in some instances reported processing dates may appear to have regressed due to this change, they do not reflect a lengthening of USCIS processing times, but simply the change in reporting. Our goal is to provide accurate projections and thus give customers clear expectations as to what they can expect as a processing time.

There are several important exceptions to the processing times shown below:

- Case processing will be delayed if we must ask you for more evidence or information.
If we ask for missing required initial evidence, count the processing time from when we receive that missing evidence.
- The case processing timeframe will start over if a customer doesn't appear for an interview or asks that it be rescheduled.

What if I have a problem or have questions about a case?

We offer a variety of services after you file. For example, for most kinds of cases you can check the status of your case online.

For more information about when and how to contact us, whether your case is outside our processing time or if there are other issues, please see our fact sheet –

Case Services - How do I... know what kind of services are available to me after I file my application or petition?

One additional point about these projections. They are the time to complete processing and mail the actual notice and/or document. If you check case status online and see that your case has been approved, and you haven't yet received your approval notice or document in the mail, we ask that you wait thirty days from the approval date before contacting us. That is because it may take that long before it is returned to us as undeliverable. You can also print the case status online answer for your records.
